Varsity Field Hockey

The Varsity field hockey team played to a ninth place standing in the state this year, after losing 11 seniors from last year's team. The score was very close in most games as our season ended in a 7-3-4 record. Our outstanding features this year were endurance and speed. Only 4 seniors will graduate in June leaving us with many underclassmen returning next year for an experienced and enthusiastic team.

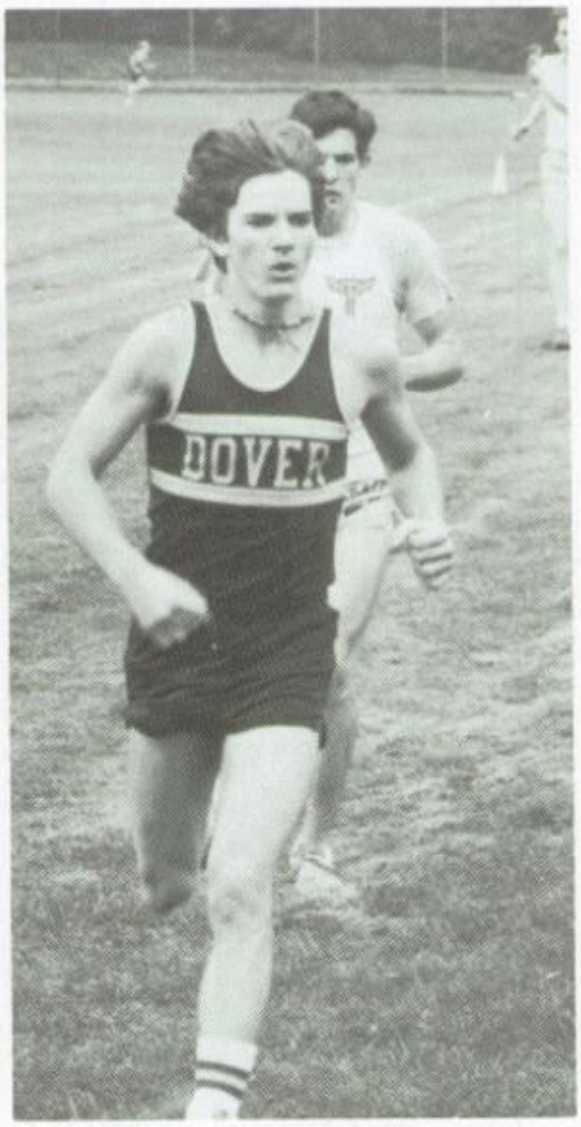
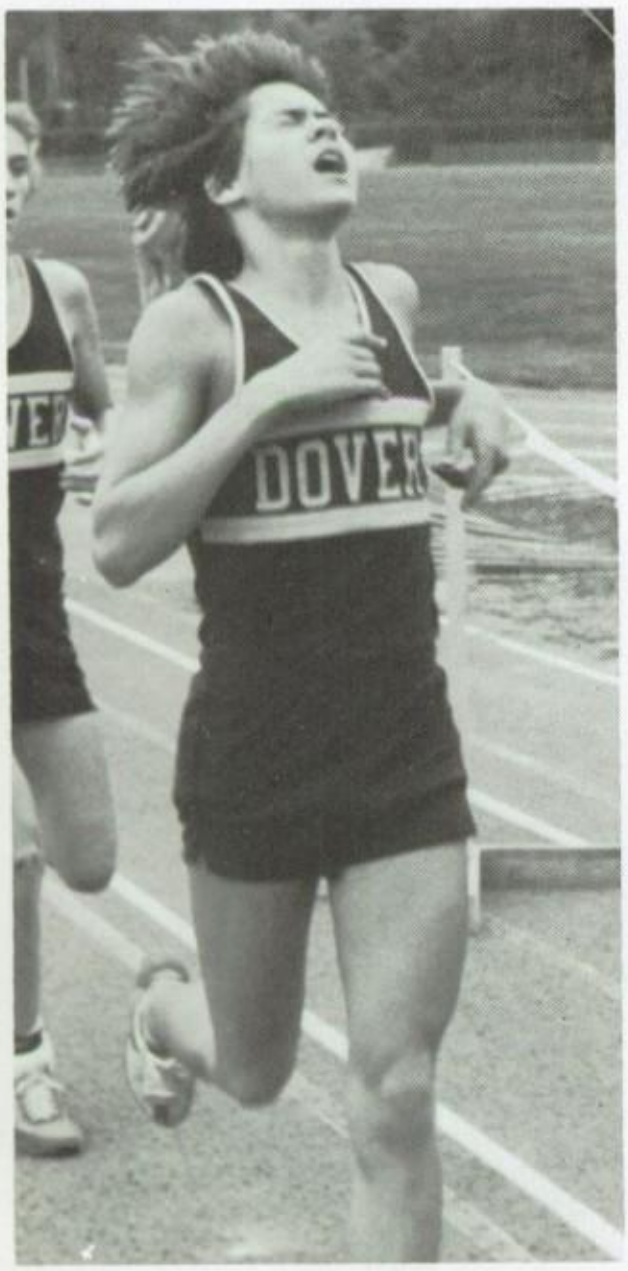
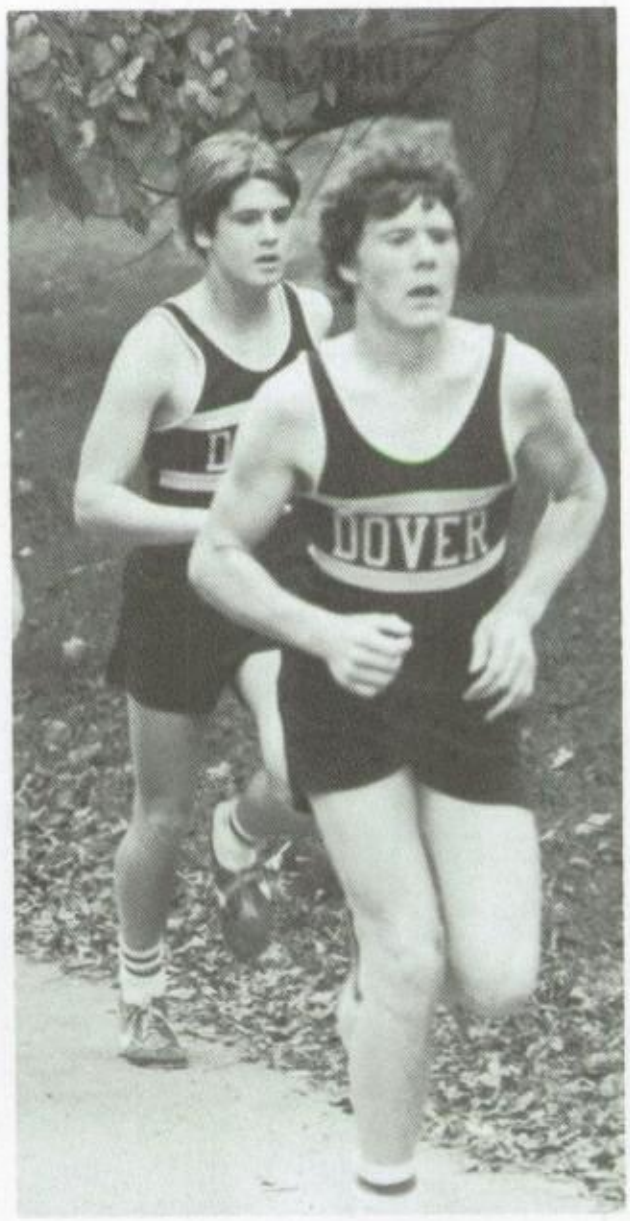
COUNTRY

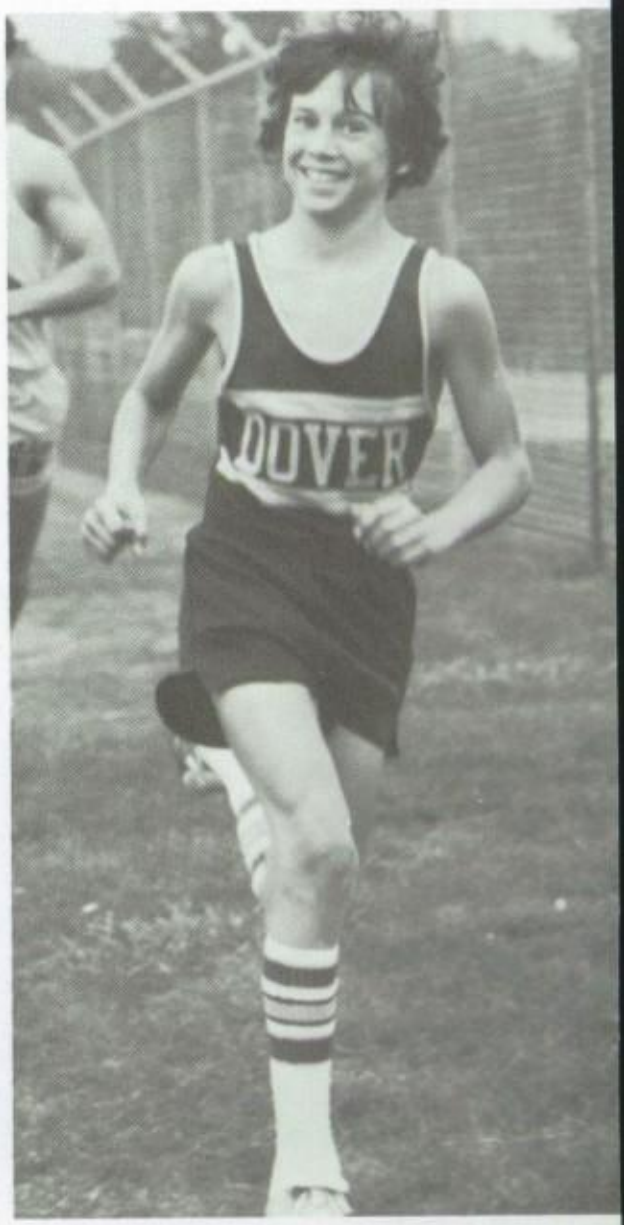
No Sweat!







Smiling through the pain



. . . And this is supposed to be good for you?

This year's Boy's Cross-Country Track Team showed a great deal of talent but lacked experience. Unfortunately they will be losing two of their top 10 runners, Gary Allen and John Halihan, but they are looking forward to next season as being one of their best.

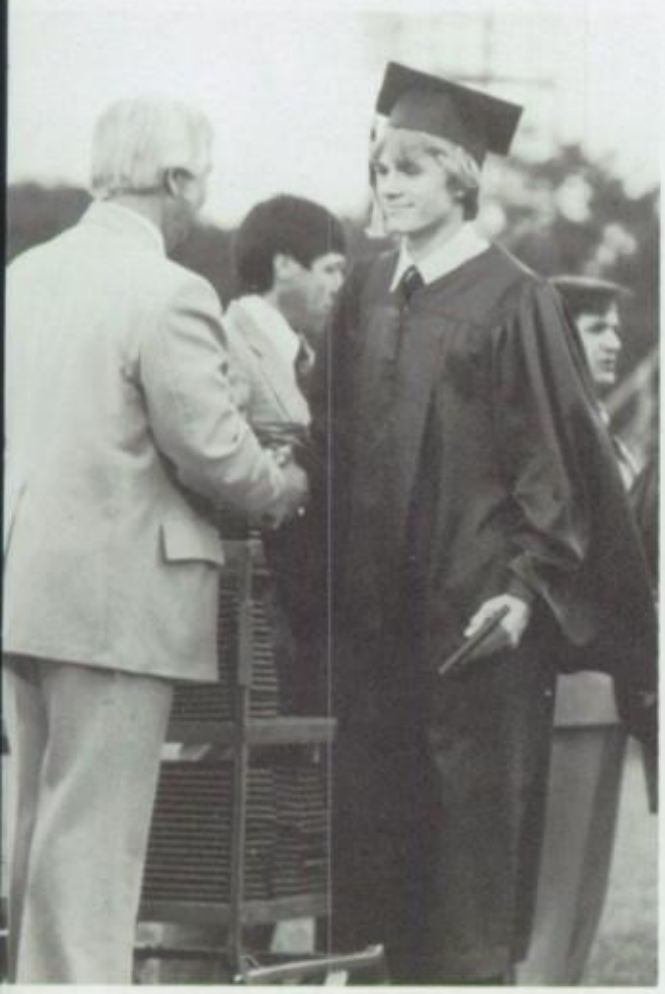
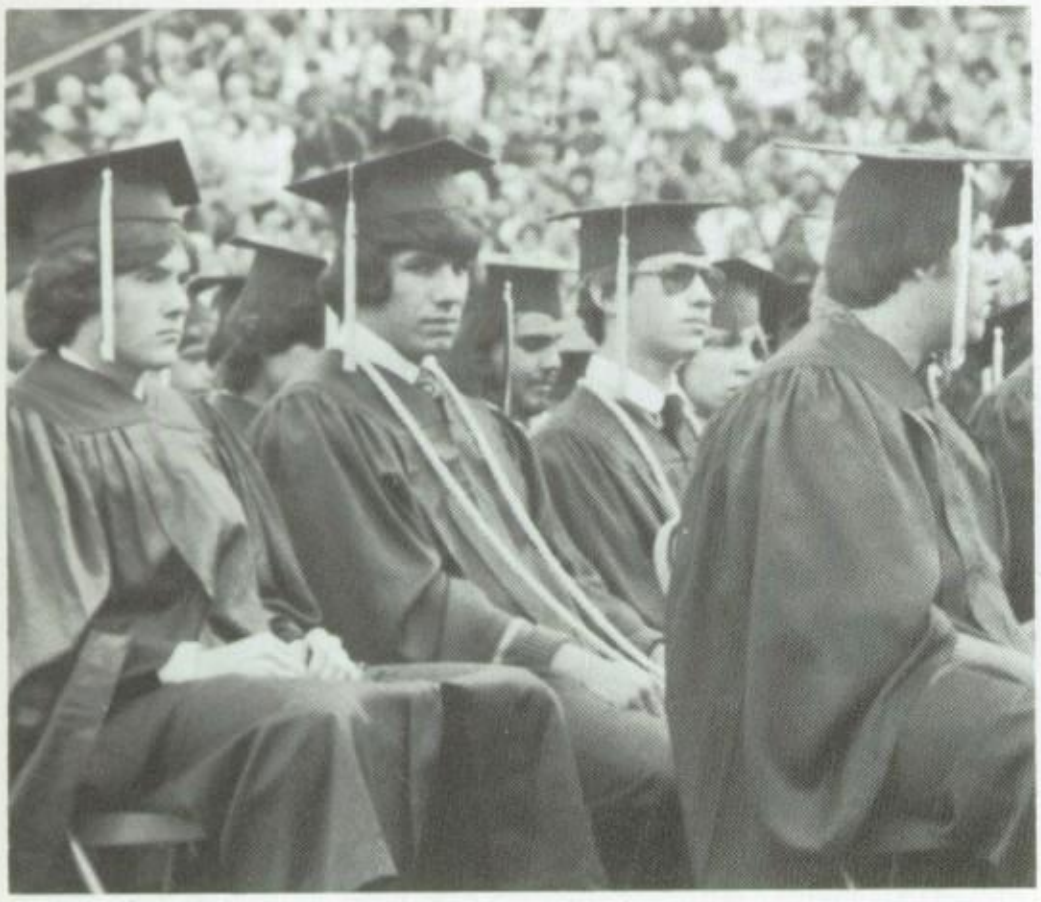
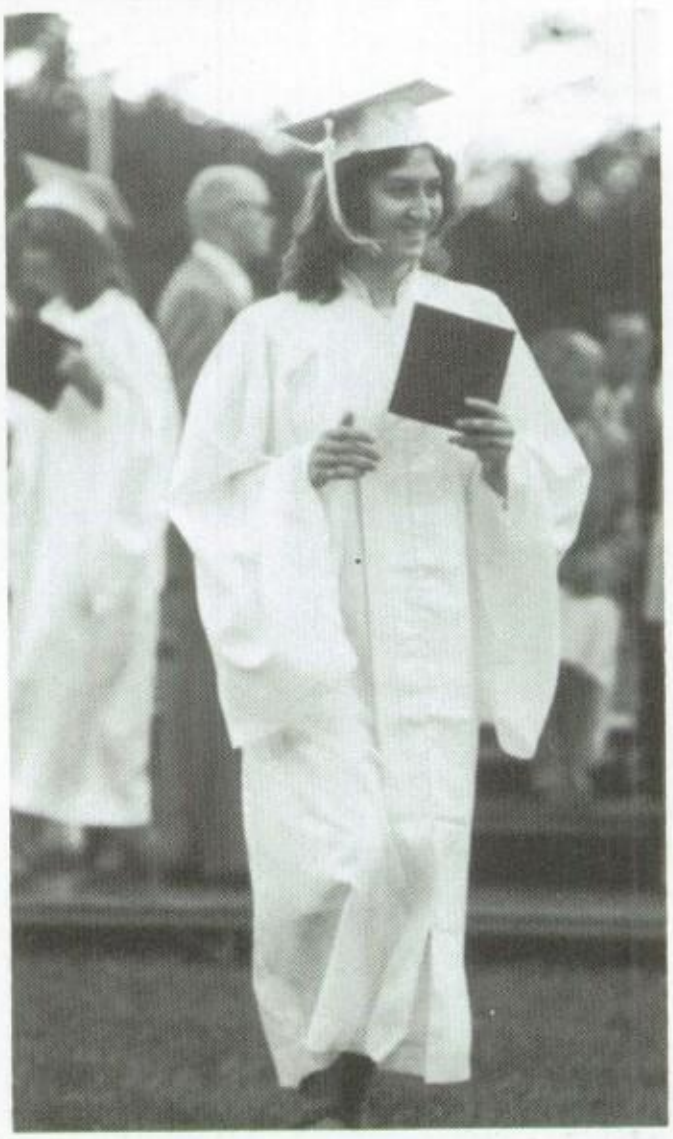
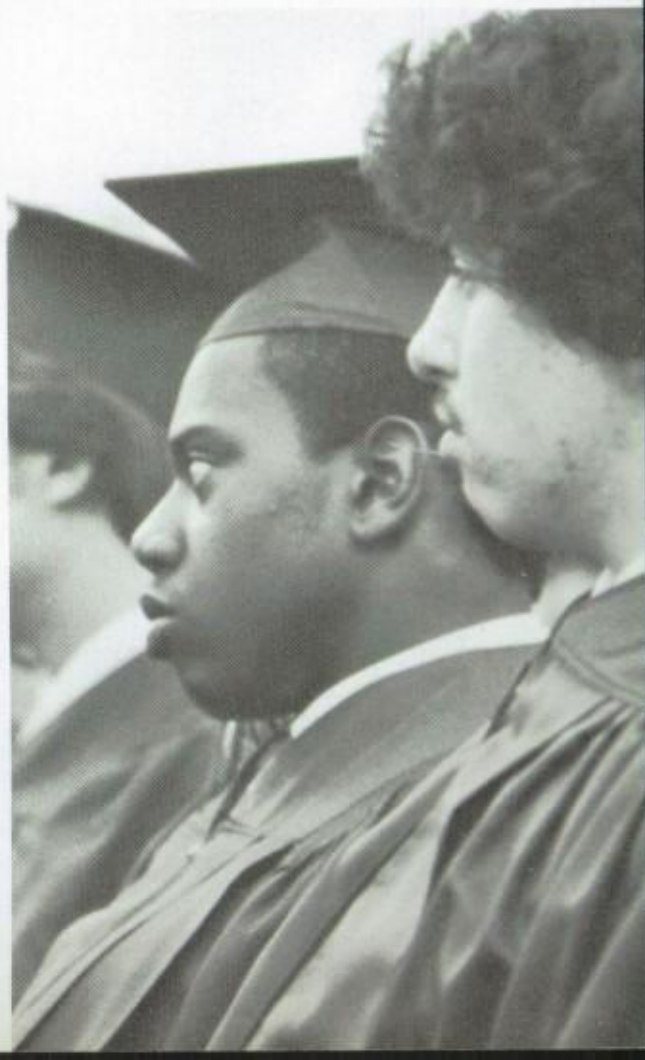
Pomp and Circumstance?

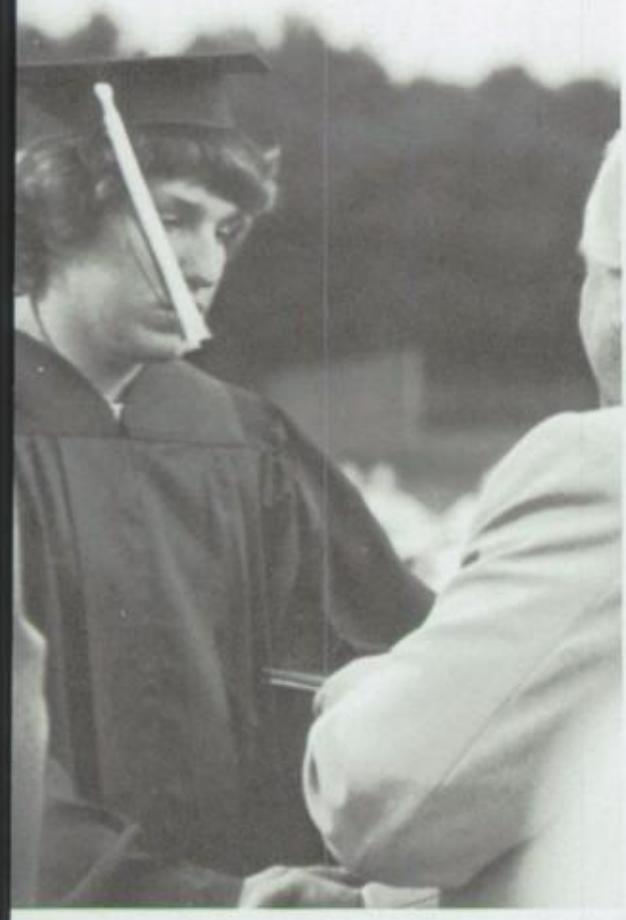


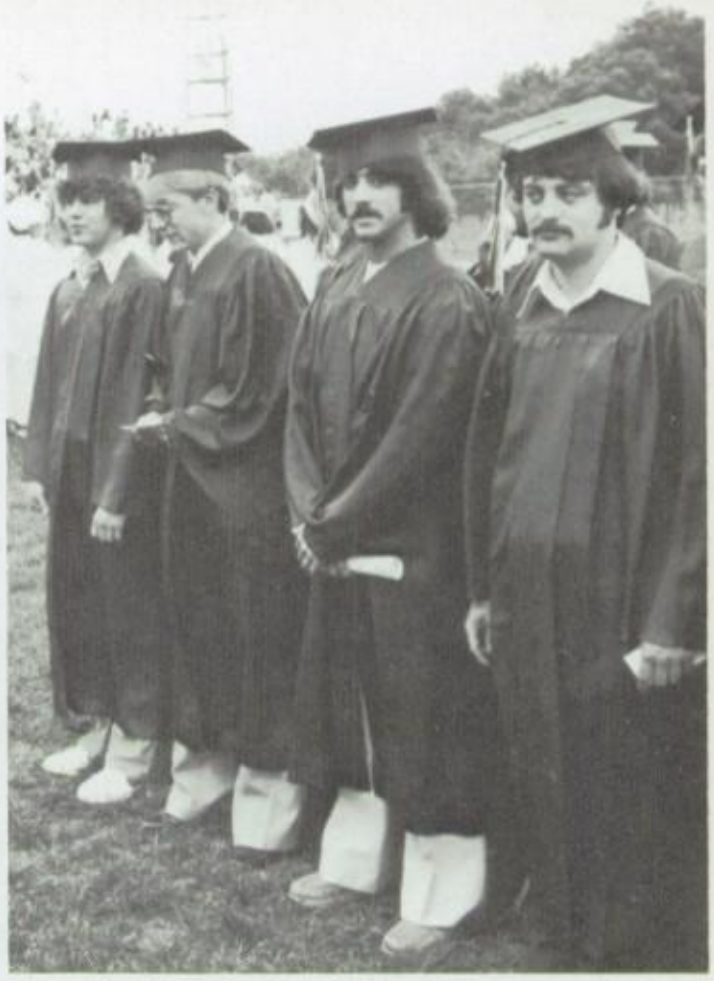
The Long Awaited Moment

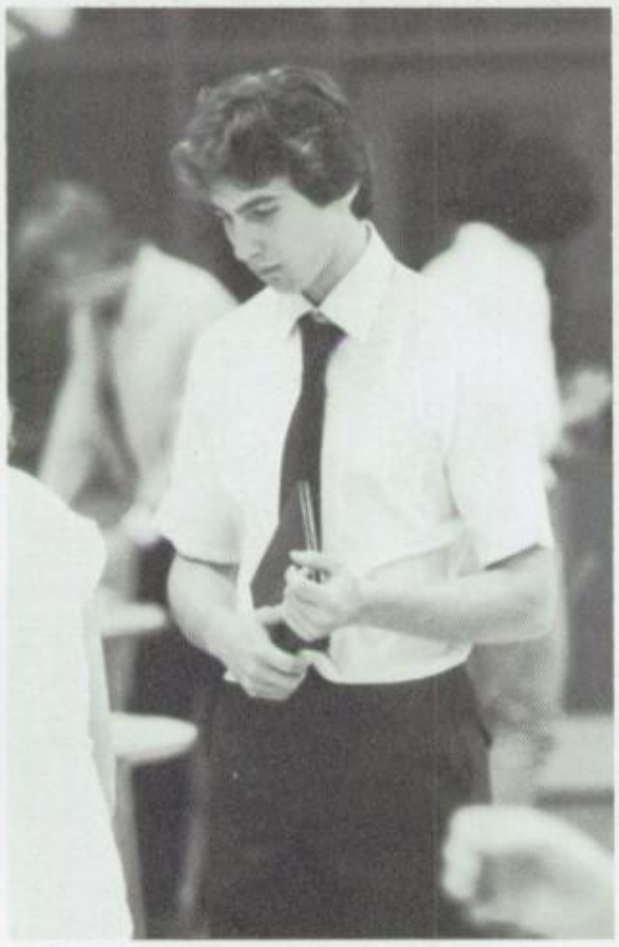


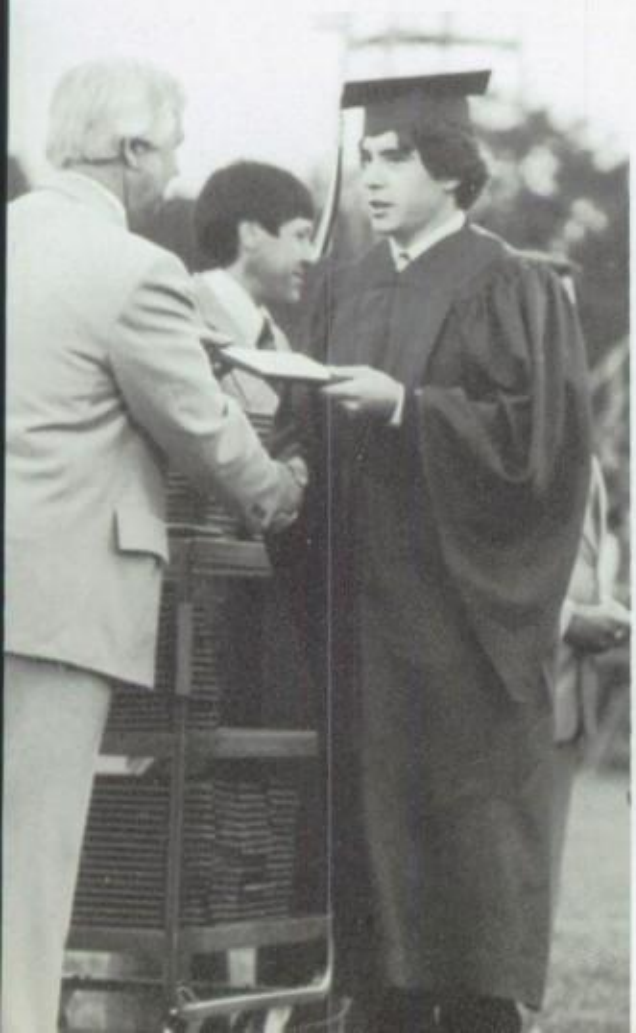












WE MADE IT!

LAST WILL

I, Rick Ames, leave my baseball ability to Scott "Tapper" Norris. He needs it!
I, Sharon Anderson, leave my new found ability to stay out of the principal's office to those who need it, Phil.
I, Kurt Bahmer, leave my wild craving for curls to Phil Cleary — silly Phily.
I, Gina Barbaro, will love Steve Farrar forever until death do us part!
I, Barbara Barton, leave my "twiginess" to anyone else who can wear it as proudly as I do.
I, Scott Beaumont, leave my ability to go on "Red eyeball Express" any time without any problems with the Three Stooges.
I, Donna Beers, leave second gear of the Ghia to Matt Crowley.
I, Maurice Blouin, leave my drinking ability to Eric Tabor.
I, Ron Bouchie, will leave my abilities to John Griffin who will need them!!!
I, Denis Breton, leave my report cards to Betsy Smith, for she may need them her senior year.
I, Sharon Brunetle, leave my ability to flirt with the administration and good humor to Sandy Hardy.
I, Rob Callan, leave the writing in my locker to the incoming freshman. I also leave my gym shorts that have been stolen out of my gym locker.
I, Brian Carroll, leave my fro to Todd Hager.
I, Jim Carroll, leave my political ability to Sharon Belanger; she will need it.
I, Patricia Chadwick . . . leave
I, Brian Chamberlain, leave my "69 Rambler" to anyone who needs cheap transportation.
I, Carla Coffey, leave my ability to bribe others to my favorite and only brother, Mark.
I, Ken Cole, leave my abilities to me.
I, Joyce Davis, leave my speed to Skippy.
I, Scott DeCelles, will leave my keys to my Cadillac to Neal Kennedy in a hundred years.
I, Barb Demeritt, leave my brother the hopes of graduating from high school.
I, Estelle Dionne, leave to Sue Vitko my ability to run relay and hope she will put it to good use.
I, Pierre Donahue, leave nothing to Pat Lewis and Gary Koufos.
I, Todd Dudley, leave Matthew Carter my brains, looks and talent. He'll need it to get out of this joint.
We, Patty Dugan and Terri Gadbois, leave our ability to participate in physical education ("gym majors") to the freshman football team.
We, Tracy Dunn, Mick George, Omar Aldarraji, and Gary Ruel, hereby leave the Reigns of the Arab League of Camelmen to Kenaan Aldarraji and those Arabs worthy of following.
I, Dave Emerson, LEAVE!!!
I, Dennis Frangos, leave my bench warming ability to Tony Martuscillo.
I, Sally Frost, leave my ability to leave class early to Donna Antonelli and Michelle Campbell.
I, Paul Gagne, Leave!!!
I, Sheila Gibbons, leave to my brother Robert the right to chew on Robin Campbell's arm.
We, Gerry Glidden and Susan Henderson, leave to all the underclassmen our ability to turn a properly planned evening into total chaos — 6/9/79.
I, Cathy Gosselin, leave my ability to stay out of trouble to my brother Michael Gosselin.
I, Debbie Hadfield, leave to my brother David two of my four eyes.
I, Donna Hale, leave my 5th period driving time with Mr. Garland to Sue Labrie.
I, Steve Hall, hereby leave all of my charm and talents to Dale Biggert so he has better luck with the girls.
I, John Hallahan, leave the advice to all freshmen that: Hang in there, you only have 3 years to go!
I, Kim Harmon, leave my ability to make people laugh to Sandy Hary.
I, Bob Harmon, leave my ability to miss open nets on the soccer field to Jim Domingo. I leave two aspirins to Mr. Bullock to cure all the headaches I've caused him in the last 3 years.
I, Susan Henderson, leave my ability to do more sit-ups, bike further, and drive better to Jeff Lassor, because he's convinced it's the other way around.
I, Ken Hilton, being of sound mind and body leave this pit.
I, Donna Hunt, leave all my school spirit to Penny Bickford.
I, Heidi Kageleiry, of questionable mind and less impressionable body, leave my accent to anyone who can understand it.
I, Karen Kenney, leave my ability to crack a little smile, even when things are down, to my son Plu.
I, John Landry, leave my ability to brownie Mrs. Shaw to any Hitler fan in her Western world class.
I, Kathy LaRocque, leave my ability to get along to whoever can't.

AND TESTAMENT

I, Ted Laurion, leave all my books to Tim Laurion: 40-16-12, 25-5-1, 29-19-9, 40-44-4.

I, Norm Lemoyne, leave my ability to grow a Fu Manchu moustache to Phil Boyatsis so he can look TOUGH!

I, Felicia Lesniak, gladly leave my position of co-captain of the varsity cheerleaders to Sharon, Karen, Brenda, Lisa, Kim or Sarah (whoever dares to accept it!).

I, Scott Manderano, leave my heart and ability to keep things neat to Eva Diharce.

I, Karen Manha, hereby hope Vicki Chadwick has fun in her future, and in her senior year too.

I, Donna Markey, leave to my brother Danny my ability to do nothing in gym class and pass with flying colors.

I, Pat McKinstry, leave AG Shop to anyone who wants Mr. Brown.

I, Jeff Mitchell, leave my ability to bother Mr. Dotton to Craig Carville, who will put it to good use.

I, Al Morancy, leave my ability to get myself out of trouble with the administration to anybody who is radical as I am.

I, Gary Musler, leave my good times in forestry class to Mark, Diane, and Beth (the pre-forestry animals).

I, Darlene Nickel, leave my loving thoughts to Mike Farrar.

I, Paul Norris, leave my tennis ability to Rob Wales. He needs it — believe me, he needs it!

I, Tim O'Rourke, leave my abilities to Steven Turcotte or to anyone who wants them.

I, Allan Parshall, leave my problems to J. D. MacDougall with good luck.

I, Tamara Perry, leave all my evilness to Mr. Brown . . . With luck he'll soon be as evil as I am.

I, Lyssa Phofolos, leave my artistic ability to Diane Lirette. And I'd like to leave with Mrs. O's coffee boy — Ron Plante.

I, Brendan Plante, leave my ability to drink to anyone who likes to get drunk.

I, Jonathon Rawls, leave Cabbit to Meg Kinzie to turn loose in Northern California.

I, Chris Redden, leave my answering service to Hana.

I, Kevin Redden, leave my building construction ability to Mike Pelzar.

I, Bette Reinhalter, leave all my clothes to Margaret when she gains weight.

I, Laura Rubino, leave without saying a word and hopes of never coming back.

I, Dave Safford, leave the DHS drum section to Anora Conway. Sorry, Fred comes with the deal.

I, Tracy Seaver, leave my throne in #3 to Cathy Curran; keep it warm.

I, Rick Smith, leave all the weight lifting ability to all the underclassmen.

I, Karen Staples, leave my ability to be a mediator to anyone who could use it.

I, Shawn Steere, leave my wellknown ability to party to Tammy Gredin.

I, Greg Stevens, leave my state of mind behind in this school for anyone who agrees with the way I feel toward it.

I, Lorraine Stickney, leave my ability to work 30 hours a week, do school work and even socialize without going completely crazy to any underclassman who has the time.

I, Michele Sturgeon, leave to Dan Markey my ability to pass geometry without understanding the difference between an acute angle and an isosceles triangle.

I, Donna Talon, do hereby leave my whiplash to anyone who can benefit from it to get out of gym!!

I, Gary Tibbetts, leave my body to Cathy Brunson.

I, Jim Torres, leave my amazing ability writing to Mrs. Ohlemeier's entire 2nd period class.

I, Cindy Upson, leave my ability to notice the color of peoples' eyes to Jennifer Busell.

I, Mark Weaver, leave my Charlie Brown books to the Dover High School library.

I, Wendy Wentworth, leave my ability to take football status to Coach Bunn, and Coach Dunn.

I, Jennifer Wilde, leave my Saturday nights to Phil Keenan.

I, Ann Wilson, leave my grades to Mike Wilson in hopes that he will make it through high school.

I, Douglas Wright, leave my "debonair attitude," "stylish attire" to Mr. Curtis T. Owens and Mr. Reginald G. Tait.

I, Donna Wynot, give Mr. Kageleiry my brother Jeff Wynot who will be a freshman next year in hope that he has a good four years. Good luck.

We, Carol Young and Stephanie Harnish, will leave Betty Young our favorite teacher (may she teach in peace). MSPT

I, Lance Zerbinopoulos, leave my white shotgun to hang on poppy's mantel until another generation of coon hunters come along for there is no one to pass it on to.
